The Committee of Seventy

In 2004, Seventy is celebrating its Centennial year as Philadelphia's leading non-partisan political watchdog organization. When Seventy was founded in 1904, our primary focus was poll watching to combat widespread fraud and intimidation at the polls on Election Day. Since then, Seventy has expanded its mission to include advocacy, public interest litigation, citizen and candidate education, and public policy research. During recent years, Seventy has also expanded its geographic scope to serve as an educational and informational resource for citizens throughout the Commonwealth, with a special emphasis on Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Seventy was founded on the following beliefs:

- * Government should be excellent and honest
- * Public elections must be free and fair
- * Citizens who do not hold public office can and should affect those who do

As Seventy begins its second century of service to Philadelphia and this Commonwealth, we are committed to serving the public and meeting the new challenges posed by significant federally-mandated changes to the Election Code. Through News You Can Use and other publications Seventy will do its part to pursue good government and participatory democracy for the Greater Philadelphia area.

Your tax deductible contributions are greatly appreciated and ensure that Seventy will remain an effective and independent advocate for the public interest. To contribute to Seventy's mission, to serve as an Election Day volunteer, or to subscribe to News You Can Use, please send an e-mail to info@seventy.org or call the office at 215-557-3600. For a full description of our services, and for immediate and up-to-date access to our publications and information resources, please visit our website at www.seventy.org.
