UNDERSTANDING PHILADELPHIA'S POLITICAL STRUCTURE

DIVISIONS

Philadelphia is divided into 1,681 divisions, which are the smallest political units of the City and contain no fewer than 100 and no more than 1,200 registered voters. Each division is represented by Democratic and Republican committeepople who are elected by voters of the same party who live in the same division. Committeepople elect their party's ward leader and participate in ward meetings to share the concerns of the people who live in their division.

WARDS

Philadelphia is divided into 66 wards, which are the second smallest units of the City and contain no fewer than 10 and no more than 50 divisions. Ward leaders are elected by their party's committeepople of each division. Ward leaders are also members of their respective party organizations' City Committee, which supervises the organization and management of the party in all Philadelphia elections.

CITY COUNCIL DISTRICTS

Philadelphia is divided into 10 Councilmanic districts. Voters within each district elect one individual to represent them in Philadelphia City Council, the legislative arm of municipal government. There are also seven “at-large” members of Philadelphia City Council who are elected by voters city-wide and represent the city as a whole. Each voter may vote for a maximum of five “at-large” City Council candidates.

STATE SENATE AND HOUSE DISTRICTS

Pennsylvania is divided into 50 Senatorial districts and 203 House districts. Each district elects one individual to represent them in both the state Senate and the state House of Representatives. Seven of the 50 Senatorial districts and 28 of the 203 House districts include Philadelphia residents. Reapportionments are done every 10 years after each federal census to ensure that each district is as nearly equal in population as possible.

Together the state Senate and state House of Representatives form the Pennsylvania General Assembly, which represents the legislative branch of state government.

UNITED STATES SENATE AND HOUSE DISTRICTS

Pennsylvania is represented by 19 individuals in the 435-member United States House of Representatives—four are elected from districts containing Philadelphia residents. House seats are apportioned on the basis of population. Pennsylvania also has two representatives in the 100-member United States Senate, each of whom is elected statewide. Every state has two Senators, regardless of population.

Together the Senate and House form the United States Congress, which represents the legislative branch of the federal government.

COMMITTEE OF SEVENTY AND YOU!

The Committee of Seventy provides you with tools and resources to learn more about your rights as a citizen – and as a voter.

STAYING INFORMED

The Committee of Seventy's website provides up-to-date information on issues pertaining to ethics, elections, efficiency and civic education. Sign up for our email alerts and mailing list by logging on to www.seventy.org or by calling 215-557-3600, extension 103.

CITIZEN ACCESS CENTER

The Committee of Seventy's Citizen Access Center enables you to use your Philadelphia home address to locate your polling place, political districts and elected officials. This tool is available by logging on to our website www.seventy.org/map or by calling 1-866-268-8603. No other organization offers this unique telephone service.

ELECTIONS OVERSIGHT PROGRAM

The Committee of Seventy provides many opportunities to safeguard the integrity of Philadelphia's elections and protect the right to vote without fear or intimidation. For over 100 years, Seventy has recruited and trained thousands of non-partisan Election Day volunteers to monitor the polls, resolve problems and answer questions about how and where to vote. To become an Election Day volunteer, sign up on our website www.seventy.org/joinus/volunteer.html or call 215-557-3600, extension 104.

HOW TO RUN FOR POLITICAL OFFICE

The Committee of Seventy can help you gain a greater voice in how your government operates. Many highly-qualified citizens avoid public service because they don't know how to get started. We offer a Guide and workshops on running for political office in Pennsylvania—from serving as a Committeeperson in your neighborhood to becoming Governor. For a copy of the Guide and a list of workshops in your area, log on to www.seventy.org/empoweringcitizens/runforoffice/index.html or call 215-557-3600, extension 103.

THE NEXT MAYOR PROJECT

The Committee of Seventy is partnering with the Philadelphia Daily News and WHYY on a multi-media project to provide comprehensive coverage of the 2007 municipal election for mayor and Philadelphia City Council. Please visit www.thenextmayor.com for complete information about this project.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHERE IS MY POLLING PLACE?

Philadelphia voters can visit the Committee of Seventy's Citizen Access Center's polling place locator either by logging on to www.seventy.org/map or by calling 1-866-268-8603. Voters who live outside of Philadelphia should check their local newspapers or log on to www.pavoterservices.state.pa.us/pollingplaceinfo/.

DO I NEED IDENTIFICATION IN ORDER TO VOTE?

Federal and state laws require all electors voting in a division for the first time to provide one of following:

Photo ID (must be valid)

- Driver's license or card issued by the PA Department of Transportation
- Identification issued by another PA agency or by the U.S. Government, including passport or Armed Forces identification
- Student or employee identification

Non-photo ID (must include voter's name and address)

- Voter's identification card issued by the voter registration commission
- Non-photo identification issued by PA or by the U.S. Government
- Firearm permit
- Current utility bill, bank statement or paycheck
- Government check

WHEN SHOULD I RE-REGISTER TO VOTE?

You must re-register to vote if there is a change in your name, address or political party. Otherwise, you can only vote at the polling place in your former district, or under your former name or political party.

WHAT IF I AM UNABLE TO VOTE IN PERSON?

If you are registered and qualified to vote, but are unable to vote in person on Election Day, you can still vote by ABSENTEE BALLOT. To obtain an absentee ballot, visit or contact your County Board of Elections or download an application by going to www.dos.state.pa.us/voting/. With few exceptions, all absentee ballot applications must be completed, signed and received by your County Board of Elections no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Tuesday before Election Day.

CAN SOMEONE HELP ME IN THE VOTING BOOTH?

By filling out a Declaration of Assistance at your polling place, a person of your choice can help you vote as long as that person is not your employer, union leader or the judge of elections (unless the judge is the only person who speaks the same language). You can also contact your County Board of Elections in advance to request assistance at the polls.

WHAT IF MY POLLING PLACE IS NOT HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE?

If your polling place is not handicapped accessible, you can ask the County Board of Elections to provide you with an ALTERNATIVE BALLOT. Alternative ballots must be completed, signed and received by your County Board of Elections no later than 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

CAN I VOTE FOR ANY CANDIDATE IN A PRIMARY ELECTION?

You must be registered in a political party in order to vote in that party's primary (May). However, you may vote for candidates of ANY party during the general election (November) regardless of the party in which you are registered.

WHEN DO THE POLLS OPEN AND CLOSE?

Polling places open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. If you are in line by 8 p.m., you must be allowed to vote.

WHAT IF I AM DENIED THE RIGHT TO VOTE AT MY POLLING PLACE?

If your name does not appear in the poll book, or if you don't have proper identification, you can vote by using a PROVISIONAL BALLOT (a paper ballot). To check if your vote was counted, call 1-877-VOTE PA three days after the election.
